

The Nebraska State Historical Society
Brown Bag History Lecture Series

Feb. 16, 2017 - Noon - Free

Celebrating Nebraska's 150th with a year-long "Peoples of Nebraska" theme!

The African-American Experience in Nebraska: Artifacts from the Great Plains Black History Museum

Presentation by
Dr. Patrick D. Jones,
Associate Professor,
University of Nebraska-Lincoln
Department of History &
Institute for Ethnic Studies

Nebraska History Museum
Blackman Auditorium
131 Centennial Mall North, Lincoln
402-471-4782

With major reliance on artifacts from the Great Plains Black History Museum, the presenter will highlight the historical experiences of African-Americans across Nebraska, including those of homesteaders and cowboys.

Nebraska
STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY
www.nebraskahistory.org

See recorded
lectures on YouTube
or government
access channel, courtesy the
Nebraska State
Historical Society
Foundation

Nebraska State Historical Society
FOUNDATION