

• HISTORIC SITE •

MCCOOK, NEBRASKA

George Norris changed America. Discover the fascinating story of how his Rural Electrification Act and the Tennessee Valley Authority Act brought new life and new light to our country in the 1930s.

Nebraska

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

SENATOR GEORGE NORRIS STATE HISTORIC SITE

706 Norris Avenue
McCook, NE 69001
308-345-8484

Fiercely independent and highly influential, George Norris was one of America's most important statesmen of the twentieth century. Walk through the house that served as his home base from 1902 until his death in 1944. See furnished rooms and exhibits that interpret the life of this uncommon champion of the common man. Learn how one Nebraskan changed life for all Americans.

• HOURS •

Tuesday–Saturday, 1–5
Closed all state holidays

ADMISSION

- Adults: $3.00
- Children with adults: free
- NSHS members: free

www.nebraskahistory.org/sites